One Bangsar
Bangsar, Kuala Lumpur
2005

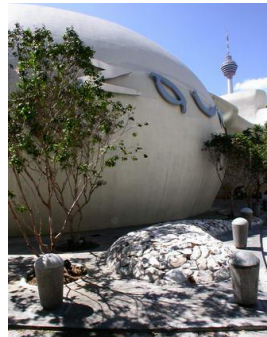

A vibrant rooftop garden scene. A young child in a grey shirt and blue pants is climbing a set of concrete steps. The garden is filled with various plants, including a large, flowering pink bougainvillea on the left, a wooden ladder leaning against a structure in the center, and numerous potted plants in shades of yellow, orange, and green. The background shows a white building with a tiled roof and some hanging lanterns.
